

LEARNING TO USE EBAY & FB MARKETPLACE

eBay and FB Marketplace

- Each service requires you to have an account.
 - eBay (ebay.com) will allow you to browse. However you will need to create an account in order to purchase or sell.
 - Marketplace requires you to have a Facebook Account to even view the sellers' merchandise. Use your primary FB Account.
- Each service sells mostly used merchandise. New merchandise is identified as such. You are purchasing from resellers in both cases or people trying to sell unneeded merchandise.
 - eBay offers a large variety of merchandise (nation wide).
 - Marketplace offers merchandise from more localized sellers (can see national sellers too).
 - Typical Description eBay: "Used" "New" "Pre-Owned" "Open Box" "Excellent" "Very Good" "Good" "Refurbished" "Warranty"
 - Typical Description FB Marketplace: "Used" "Nearly New"
- You can search for specific items by entering details and see what most closely matches your needs and your budget.
-  If you're searching for something NEW then try Amazon, Walmart, Target, Temu, Wish, online. Each have their own app. Note: you can find used now on Walmart/Target/Amazon.

eBay and FB Marketplace

- Each service is also a Seller's Center.
 - So if you have something to sell, you can list it on these two sites (or many others), to see if you can find a buyer for your items.
 - (Not to be explored today).

- eBay: Purchase Outright Place Bids
- FB Marketplace: Purchase Outright

- eBay: Items are shipped to you
- FB Marketplace: Items can be picked up, dropped off, shipped, meeting place.

eBay and FB Marketplace

- Payment Methods:
 - Credit Card
 - 3rd Party System (Zelle, Venmo, PayPal)
 - FB Marketplace – Cash (if you are going to meet the seller)

- Personally I like PayPal. You create a secure account on PayPal and then add 1 credit card or secured debit card to the account. When you order online (eBay, Walmart, Target, etc) then you use “Pay Via Paypal” when you go to order instead of entering your credit card into the payment system. Also PayPal will assist you if you have issues with your purchase.

What Can I Find On These Sites?

- Electronics (smartphones, laptops, home computers, monitors, hard drives, thumb drives, sd cards, bluetooth items, tablets, ipads, smart speakers, watches, smart watches, printers)
- Home & Kitchen Appliances (TVs, sewing machines, mixers, slow cookers, air fryers, juicers, food processors)
- Patio Furniture, Garden Tools, Rugs, Power Equipment, Vehicles, eBikes, eChairs (the list is never ending)

How Does It Work?

- The process is the same for searching on both sites:
 - Determine what you are searching for (get your criteria defined)
 - Set your budget (give or take – at least your upper limit)
 - Log in to either service and enter your search criteria
- Example – You're looking for an Apple iPhone, Model 14 pro, Max (the one with the larger screen), with at least 256 Gb of memory (for lots of pictures), you also want to be able to connect it to ANY provider (AT&T, Consumer Cellular, Verizon, T-Mobile, Metro-PCS, etc) so – you want the iPhone to be “unlocked” so you can do that.
 - Your search criteria is: “iPhone 14 pro max unlocked 256gb”

The screenshot shows the Facebook Marketplace interface. At the top, there are login fields for "Email or phone" and "Password", with "Log In" and "Forgot Account?" buttons. The "Marketplace" header is on the left, with a search bar containing "Search Marketplace" and a red arrow pointing to it. Below the search bar are options for "Browse all", "Your account", and a "+ Create new listing" button. A "Filters" section shows "San Francisco, California" and a blue callout box with the text "Enter your city to show local results". The main content area is titled "Today's picks" and shows three listings for iPhones. The first listing is an "Apple iPhone 14 Pro Unlocked 256gb" for $650 in Phoenix, AZ. The second is an "iPhone 14 Pro 256GB UNLOCKED" for $670 in Tempe, AZ. The third is an "Apple iPhone 14 Plus Unlocked 256gb" for $540 in Phoenix, AZ. At the bottom, there is a login prompt: "Log in or sign up for Facebook to connect with friends, family and people you know." with "Log In" and "Create new account" buttons.
